

Savona-Concerto Silvervest

Mercoledì 11 maggio ore 22.00 presso RainDogs House di Piazza Rebagliati a Savona

Silvervest

Kim Zombik (voce) e Nicolas Caloia (contrabbasso) sono musicisti da anni ormai sulla cresta dell'onda, ma pur sempre aperti a esplorare nuovi territori sonori. Le loro canzoni intimiste raccontano storie agrodolci di incontri cosmici che ondeggiavano tra spavalderia e dolcezza. Immaginatevi Sun Ra nei panni del pianista di Joni Mitchell oppure Jeannie Lee e Bootsie Collins che duettano e avrete una vaga idea della musica sorprendente, e a tratti divertente, proposta da questi due collaboratori di lunga data.

Kim Zombik roots her original compositions and performance style deep in her own rich life experience. She performs regularly in Montreal and has released 12 recordings, 3 on Sony/Village Records. Two of those releases reached top ten in Japan's SWING Journal. Kim has opened for funk legend Parliament Funkadelic, Maceo Parker, Jimmy Cliff, The Wailers and sung with Olu Dara and William Parker. With her own quartet, Kim has performed in the Montreal International Jazz Festival (2005, 2009, 2014), the L'OFF Jazz Festival (2014), the Ginza, Japan, Jazz Festival (2007), the Irktusk, Siberia "New York Blues" Festival (2008), as well as toured with a 90-piece orchestra in Japan (2009 with Joe Hisaichi and the Japan New World Orchestra). Nicolas Caloia, is an unparalleled force in the Canadian creative music scene. As bass player, composer, and bandleader Caloia's music can be heard in ongoing collaborations with Tristan Honsinger, Joe McPhee, Matana Roberts, Lori Freedman, Malcolm Goldstein, Sam Shalabi, Jean Derome, Joshua Zubot, and Yves Charuest, and in past projects with Roscoe Mitchell, Marshall Allen, Steve Lacy, Hassan Hakmoun, William Parker, and Pandit Hariprasad Chaurasia.
